

Aging to Perfection, Senior Care Commission of Santa Clara County

Awarded for best practices in the category of “Future of Aging Services in 2001.

Learn and Live, American Heart Association

Awarded for continued outstanding support of the American Heart Association’s efforts in cardiovascular science, education, and community programs in 2004.

ICAA Industry Innovators, International Council on Active Aging

Awarded for creativity, excellence, and efforts to advance the field of physical activity and aging in 2007.

Community Builder Award, Work to Future

Awarded for consistently participating and providing high-quality older workers in three work2future One-Stop locations in 2009.

Aging Services Collaborative

Awarded in recognition of leadership, commitment, and generous contributions of the Aging Services Collaborative in 2009.

Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger

Recognition for the work helping the elderly navigate the complex system of Medicare through education and counseling in 2010.

Pride of San Jose

Awarded for successfully advocating for meal programs for seniors in the city of San Jose, helping to keep all meal sites open in the City of San Jose in 2011.

Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition, Congresswoman Zoe Lofgren

Awarded in recognition of outstanding and invaluable service to the community in 2012.

Certificate of Recognition, Senator Jim Beall of the California Legislature

Awarded for outstanding commitment to service in our community in 2013.

Certificate of Appreciation, Employment Development Department, State of California

In recognition of consistently delivering a high level of customer service to the EDD Workforce Service office and Campbell businesses.

View more notable milestones and a complete list of our awards on the Sourcewise Media Center webpage.

